ACCENT AWARDS AND ACCOLADES:

- Accent ranked highest in its class in the 2014 J.D. Power Initial Quality StudySM, and Hyundai ranked fourth overall in initial quality, climbing six spots from last year, and was the highest-ranked non-premium brand.
- J.D. Power designated the 2014 Accent as its most appealing small car in its 2014 Automotive Performance, Execution and Layout (APEAL) StudySM.

- Hyundai's commitment to improving residual value has paid big dividends – case in point, the Accent placed best in the subcompact category in 14th annual Residual Value Awards by ALG, a subsidiary of TrueCar, Inc.
- For the second year in a row, the Accent earned MotorWeek's Drivers' Choice Award for Best Subcompact Car. MotorWeek looks at price, practicality, performance and fuel efficiency, and then selects the best models. The Accent won in the hyper-competitive subcompact car category.

- Kelley Blue Book's www.kbb.com named the 2012 Accent to its list of 10 Best Back-to-School Cars for Students: "The Accent has shed its econobox self to become a real stunner. Done with its automotive puberty, 2012 marked an all-new Accent sedan and hatchback with fresh sheetmetal, more power and even better fuel economy. Retained is a 10-year powertrain warranty that will last beyond the college years."

- The 2012 Accent was named to "Ward's 10 Best Interiors" list by the editors of WardsAuto.com and Accent also won a Ward's 10 Best Engines award for its 1.6L Gamma engine.

- "Although it competes with other subcompacts, the Hyundai Accent is roomier than the norm, and its interior dimensions actually place it in the EPA's 'compact' class. The spacious rear quarters offer enough headroom and legroom to allow even 6-footers to get comfortable in the outboard positions... Although 138 hp doesn't sound like a lot, the 2014 Hyundai Accent is one of the quicker cars in the subcompact class. Its 1.6-liter engine responds energetically when you hit the gas pedal, and there's plenty of power on tap for highway merging and passing maneuvers." – Edmunds (2014 model)
- "Hyundai's fourth-generation Accent sedan offers a roomy interior, a strong powertrain and a more premium feel than its modest pricetag would suggest." – Left Lane News
